

COAL INDUSTRY BOOMS

In the Southeastern Kentucky Fields—All Mines Open.

Barboursville, Ky.—Continued improvement in the coal industry is leading to a full resumption of operations in the Southeastern Kentucky fields. New markets have been opened in the East, and in the event of a prolonged European war local operators believe they will supply a part of the Eastern trade which draws its present supply entirely from the Eastern fields. The opening of the Panama canal will also have the effect of boosting the coal-mining industry in this section.

The completion of the Carolina Clinchfield and Big Sandy route through the Letcher county field gives a new southern outlet to Eastern Kentucky's production. The new line penetrates the "Breaks of the Sandy" on the Kentucky-Virginia border and connects with a seaboard outlet on the South Atlantic coast. A new market is opened for Kentucky coal by the completion of this line.

CELEBRATE CENTENNIAL

Covington is Planning To Celebrate Its 100th Anniversary.

Covington, Ky.—The city of Covington is to celebrate its centennial anniversary the week of September 14-19. A committee consisting of representative citizens is working day and night to make the affair a success. Unless all signs fail the 100th anniversary of the municipality will be observed in such a manner as to mark an epoch in its history.

It is expected that the crowning event of Centennial week will be the banquet to be given at beautiful Leavassor place, on the Madison pike. It will be the largest affair of its kind ever given in the city. Invitations have been sent to the governor of Kentucky, lieutenant governor of Kentucky, governors of Ohio and West Virginia, and representatives and senators in almost every state in the Union.

WAR ON HOG CHOLERA

Government is Conducting Campaign of Education.

Henderson, Ky.—Government experts are making an automobile tour of Henderson county, telling the farmers how to stamp out hog cholera. At every point the automobiles are met by large crowds of farmers, eager to learn how to save their hogs from cholera. The disease has almost exterminated many farmers. Henderson county was selected by the United States for an experiment, owing to the prevalence of hog cholera. More than $25,000 is being spent here by the government, and the battle will continue until hog cholera is entirely wiped out.

CHURCH UNITY CONFERENCE

For Spreading the Gospel in Kentucky Mountains.

Lexington, Ky.—After a session the Christian Co-operative Conference for Church Unity in the Kentucky Mountains, in session here, adjourned, to meet in this city in October, the exact date not yet having been determined. The formulation of a general plan was left to the executive committee.

MAY PRIZE THEIR OWN TOBACCO

Morganfield, Ky.—The farmers of Union county are strongly in favor of prizeing their own tobacco, as they fear that speculators will give them only a very low price, not much more than the per cent allowed by the government warehouse receipts. With the government's aid they will be in a position, they believe, to hold their tobacco for the advance which they think is sure to come.

GOOD CORN CROP IN MADISON

Richmond, Ky.—Madison and adjoining counties have had good rains, assuring one of the best corn and tobacco crops they have had for a number of years. Late vegetables are now in the market in abundance, and fall grass will be very good.

BARR IS MADE HEAD OFFICER

Lexington, Ky.—Thomas J. Barr, of this city, mining engineer and secretary of the Kentucky Mining Institute, has been selected head officer of mining engineering in the College of Mines and Metallurgy at Kentucky State university.

$5,000 DAMAGE SUIT IS FILED

Mayville, Ky.—Miss Elizabeth Nantz has filed suit in the Mason Circuit court here against the Model Laundry Co. for $5,000 damages. Some time ago she had three fingers mashed off in a mangle machine.

SUCCESSFUL SESSION CLOSED

Richmond, Ky.—The Bates Creek Baptist Association, one of the oldest Baptist associations in Kentucky, has just closed a very successful session. It was presided over by the Rev. B. F. Petty, of Louisville.

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT HELD

Carlisle, Ky.—The annual commencement exercises for the Nicholas county graduates were held here during the Nicholas County Teachers' Institute.

Thank God for Work.

Thank God every morning that you have something to do that day, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work, and forced to do your best, will breed in you temperance and self-control, diligence and strength of will, cheerfulness and content, and a hundred virtues the idle will never know. —Charles Kingsley.

Since She Went to Heaven. Reminds me of Sarah Jane Skewer-bowl, back on Half Moon, who went to a traveling clairvoyant. The medium summoned Jane's mother from Spirit Land, and Jane asked the old lady some trick questions. The ghost gave the wrong answers, of course. Whereupon Sarah Jane exclaimed: "O, naw, since you went to Heaven you've learned to be an awful liar!"

Why Shouldn't He Worry? Tucker—"Why do I look so troubled? Well, last night I dreamed I died and was buried, Parker, and I saw the tombstone at the head of my grave." Parker—"Saw your tombstone, eh? And what of it?" "Why, I'm trying to live up to the epitaph."

Discouraged. "Don't you dance?" "No," replied Mr. Meekton. "Haven't you tried to learn?" "Yes. The lady I employed was a very competent instructor. But I can't see any sense in a man's paying a woman to find fault with him."

Prudence. "A fat man is always good natured," said Mr. Dolan. "He only seems so," replied Mr. Rafferty. "He has to go easy in an argument with a friend because he knows he's not in condition to see it through to a finish."

Limit of Laziness. The laziest man in the world has been discovered in this town. He stood on Bay street yesterday and held a match out in his hand until a street car brushed by and struck it for him.

Way to Test It. A writer in the Tampa Tribune has been discussing the world-old question of whether prayers are ever answered. We suggest to the gentleman that he gives prayer a thorough test and see how it works in his case.

Literary Works Now Available. Literature in Turkey has responded to the liberty that followed the revolution. Large numbers of translations and adaptations of European scientific and literary works and books of a popular nature are now available.

Where Skirts Are Not Wanted. No lady climbing who wears skirts or bloomers will be allowed to take a place on a rope, as these have been found a distinct source of danger to the party making the climb.

How to Keep Pins From Rusting. Needles and pins will never rust in a cushion filled with coffee grounds. Rinse the grounds in cold water, spread on a sheet of paper to dry thoroughly, and then stuff the cushion.

ROBERT B. JONES, Manager.

How Could They Last. Mr. Sampson is a very frascible man, and is in the habit of punishing his boys severely. Not long since he observed that one of his sons needed a new pair of trousers. He scolded the boy for wearing out his clothes so fast. "Pa, no trousers can last any time the way you hit," replied the son, reproachfully.

Laughter a Tonic.

Laughter has its place in every wholesome, healthy life. A man who never smiles is morbid. He has lost the joy chords out of his life. He has trained himself to think only of unpleasant things, to look only and always at the dark side. He has accustomed himself so long to sadness that the muscles of his face have become set in hard, fixed lines, and cannot relax themselves.

First Coined Money.

To Lydia, the industrial power of the ancient world, belongs the honor of having issued the first coined money. The earliest known coins were stamped on one side with a lion's head or the figure of a king with bow and quiver. So far as we know the first coinage of gold dates from King Croesus of Lydia. It is impossible to say just what form the earliest money (medium of exchange) took. Probably it was cattle—from which our word, pecuniary comes.

To Clean Mother-of-Pearl.

Mother-of-pearl articles that have become dull and blurred may be restored by cleaning them with pure olive oil, then applying ordinary nail brush and rubbing with chamolice.

As to Beauty.

Socrates called beauty a short-lived tyranny; Plato, a privilege of nature; Theophrastus, a silent cheat; Theophrastus, a delightful prejudice; Carneades, a solitary kingdom; Domitian said that nothing was more grateful; Aristotle affirmed that beauty was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world; Homer, that 'twas a glorious gift of nature; and Ovid, alluding to him, calls it a favor bestowed by the gods.

Pray and You Will Receive. As the family was about to leave the dinner table little Elsie was observed with her head bowed and her hands clasped. "Why, Elsie," said her mother, "don't you know that dinner is over?" "Don't interrupt me, please," replied Elsie. "I'm praying for another dish of that puddin'."—Chicago News.

Actor of Many Parts. A Russian immigrant before the alien immigration board claimed to be a "play-actor," and said that he was also a compositor. He was vouched for by a cousin who is a furrier. Work was promised the applicant in a tailor's shop.—London Graphic.

Just Like a Trust Magnate.

In the second grade of a public school the teacher saw a little boy pass a note to the little girl across the aisle. On opening it she read, "dear Kathleen will you be my bow. I had one girl cut but she wanted everything I saw."—George.

How to Discover Mastoiditis. Tenderness discovered by pressing the hard bone behind the ear is apt to indicate mastoiditis, especially if the ear itself discharges. If the disease is recognized before serious trouble begins, a most grave operation and possibly death may be avoided.

Pebble Industry. Gathering flint pebbles on the coast near Havre, France, for shipment to foreign countries, particularly the United States, for use in the manufacture of porcelain and in grinding operations, has assumed important proportions in recent years. Approximately 20,000 tons are exported each year to the United States from Havre.
